

Rural Provider Sponsorship for Opioid Pain Management & Opioid Use Disorder Treatment Conference

We are pleased to announce that this event will receive additional sponsorship in the form of scholarships to support attendance from the New Mexico Area Health Education Center (AHEC) and the Psychiatric Medical Association of New Mexico (PMANM). AHEC is committed to promoting community health through enhanced education of students and health professionals. PMANM is committed to improving access to, and the quality of, psychiatric services. We are grateful for their partnership in sponsoring these critical educational conference events aimed at expanding MAT for OUD and reducing rates of OUD and related overdose deaths.

See below for eligibility and details of sponsorship. There are a limited number of scholarships so please register now!

Those eligible for sponsorship include rural NPs, PAs, MDs, DOs, DPMs, CNMs, ODs, and CPs. To be eligible, providers must practice and/or primarily serve patients in rural areas of New Mexico.

To register, please visit: <https://form.jotform.com/83466355293162>

Providers can receive up to $300 for attending both conference days ($150 per day).

What is AHEC?

Area Health Education Centers connect students to health careers, connect health professionals to communities, and connect communities to better health! AHEC works to: Increase the ethnic diversity of healthcare professionals in New Mexico; Encourage professional practice in under served communities; Encourage students to explore careers in healthcare and provide them with health career information; Provide support for health professions students to gain clinical and life experiences in rural New Mexico; Provide continuing education to health professions residents and practitioners in order to improve the quality of healthcare services to New Mexicans.

What is PMANM?

Psychiatric Medical Association of New Mexico
A District Branch of The American Psychiatric Association

The Psychiatric Medical Association of New Mexico (PMANM) is a district branch of The American Psychiatric Association. PMANM is organized to improve access to, and the quality of, psychiatric services. We strive to foster collaboration among all who are concerned with medical, psychological, socio-cultural and legal aspects of mental health.
